

Book of Mormon Census Project

A0046, 1830 Book of Mormon

May 15, 2023

Wheaton College, IL

1830 Book of Mormon, John Nutting Collection

Provenance:

Came from the personal library of John D. Nutting (Christian missionary to those living in Utah in mid/late 1800's)

Notable details on Nutting found at: archives.wheaton.edu/agents/people/2535

Donated to Wheaton College in 1951. Held in special collections ever since.

Inscription on inside cover listing Nancy Carrels

Features and Notes:

Spine: Intact and darkened in color, gold lines worn off and black lines in place.

Spine Lettering and Label: Black ribbon visible. Gold lettering worn off. faint trace of lettering noticeable

Binding: Front end papers missing

Title Page: present and intact. significant ink spot with accompanying smaller ink spot on first paragraph. signs of triangular cockling on lower right and left corners.

Text: foxing and noticeable spots on first text page. small hole worn through on first text page above the First Book of Nephi title revealing words from page 7.

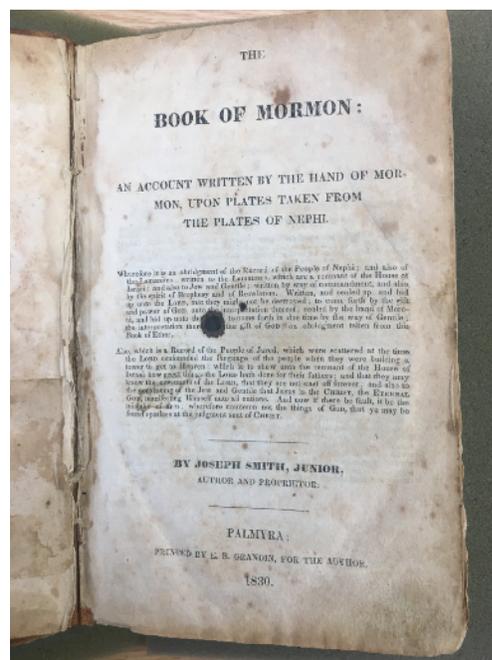

Inscription: Front inside cover listing "Nancy Carrels Book"

Notes: Preface page: "iv"

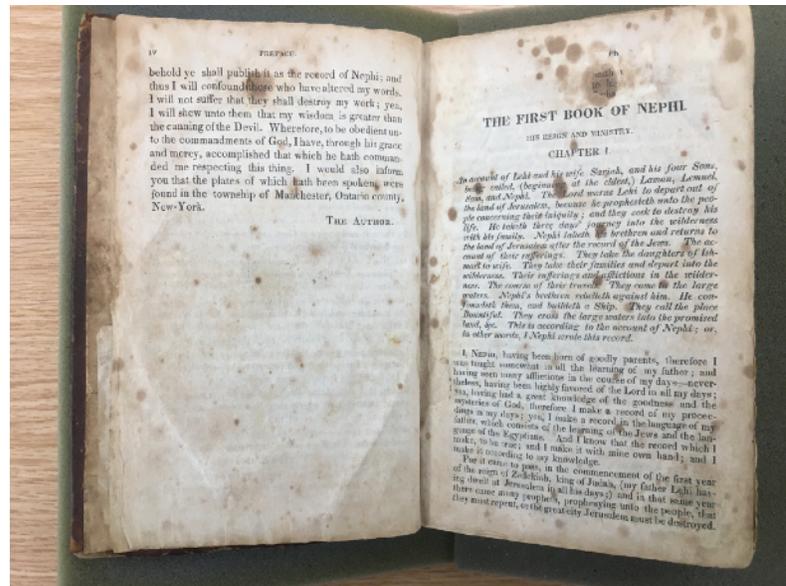

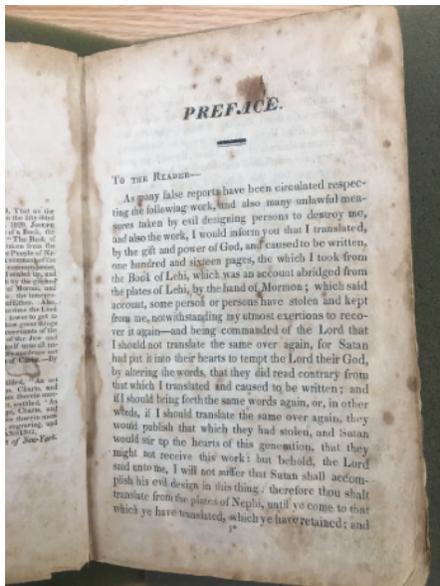

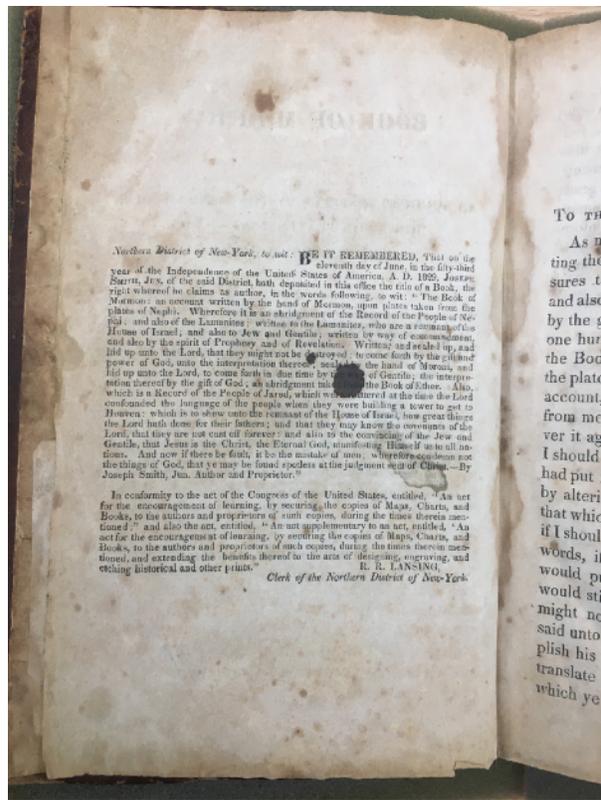

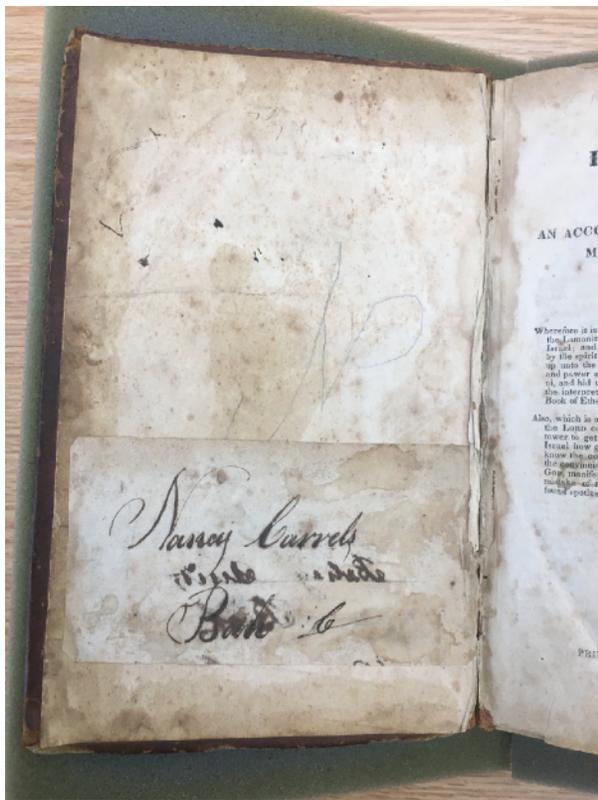

Additional pictures taken, including:

Book of Mormon Census

A0046

Book of Mormon Census

A0046