

Book of Mormon Census Project

A0062, 1830 Book of Mormon

Aug 11, 2023

University of Wisconsin, Wisconsin Historical Society, Madison WI

1830 Book of Mormon, Wisconsin Historical Society

Provenance:

University Stamp of Jan 23 1956, likely the date of record to the Historical Society
Inscriptions of AT Schroeder, and other books coming from the Schroeder collection
AT Schroeder collection was mentioned in Dialog Magazine in 1960

Features and Notes:

Spine: Present, separating from bindings. worn on top and bottom

Spine Lettering and Label: Black ribbon mostly present, vertical section missing at Letter O in Of and Partial MON.

Cover: Leather wear and cracking. Wear marks in upper right corner. Illegible inscription in black.

Binding: Covers and spine detached. Gatherings still stitched together.

Title Page: triangular cockling present on all four corners. Red underlines under "Lamanites which are" and "it be the fault of men". Rubber stamp in purple listing A.T Schroeder lower right corner. Water stains top and lower right corners.

Text: Preface page: rubber stamp in red listing Jan 23 1956, upper left corner. No other markings known.

Inscription: Inside front cover listing A.T Schroeder in pencil

Notes: Back inside cover showing rubber stamp in purple listing A.T. Schroeder. Also in pencil: "First Edition, Palmyra, 1830 Very Scarce" with "15.00" and other pencil marks.

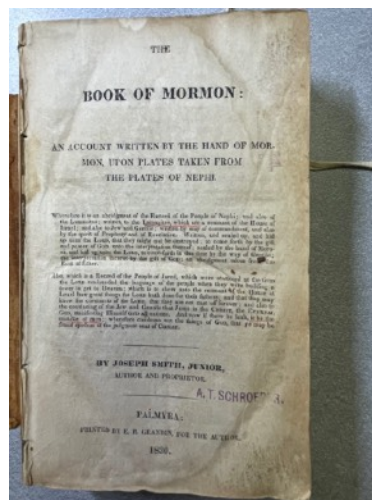

Additional details at:

https://www.dialoguejournal.com/wp-content/uploads/sbi/articles/Dialogue_V02N03_156.pdf

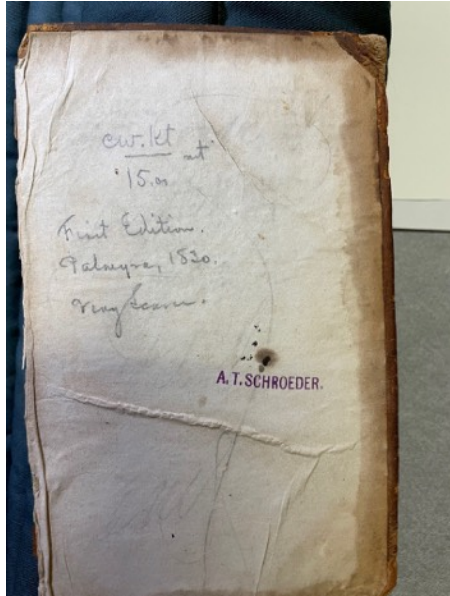

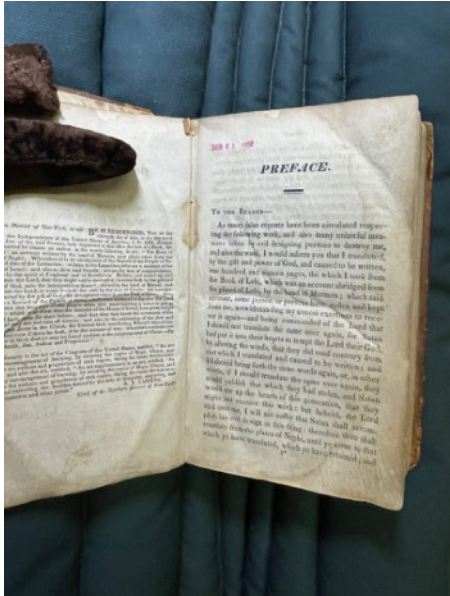

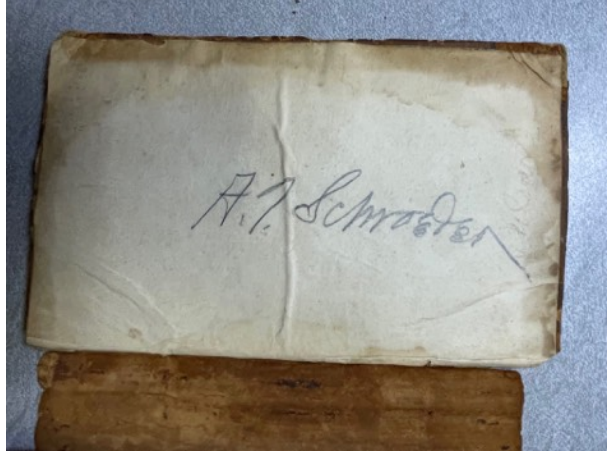

Additional pictures taken, including:

Book of Mormon Census

A0062

Book of Mormon Census

A0062