

Book of Mormon Census Project

A0100, 1830 Book of Mormon

January 21, 2025

Seattle Washington Temple

1830 Book of Mormon, Seattle Washington Temple

Provenance:

Last names of Freeman and Partridge inscribed, Pencil notes of Frankinville, Catt. Co, NY
Accompanying plaque lists this was given to Layton B Jones, Seattle Stake President in 1960 by a member of the community. Given to the Seattle Temple by F. Arthur Kay, first Seattle temple president in 1980. Housed in a display case inside the temple.

Features and Notes:

Spine: dark and light contrasting colors. 7 sets of ribbing with gold inlay wearing off. curved section at lower right edge part of circular mark on cover.

Spine Lettering and Label: Black title ribbon present and gold block letters fading but visible.
Large block format.

Cover: Noticeable circular mark on lower left portion, wrapping to spine. Scratches and wear marks on upper half and other various parts.

Binding: spine/cover hinge in tact. Single front endpaper

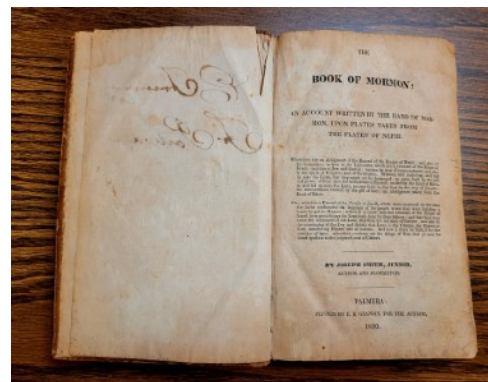

Title Page: Present and intact. no markings. Slight triangular cockling top right and left and bottom left corners.

Text: Full text, various markings in gutter and edges in pencil

Inscription: (E) Freeman (F) Partridge

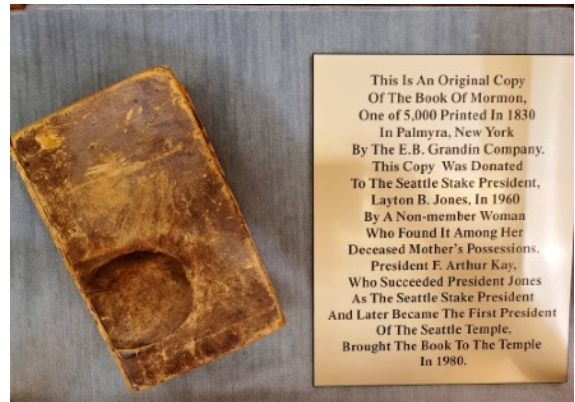

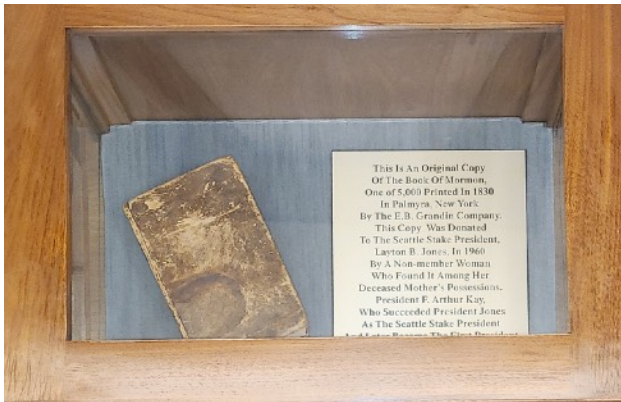

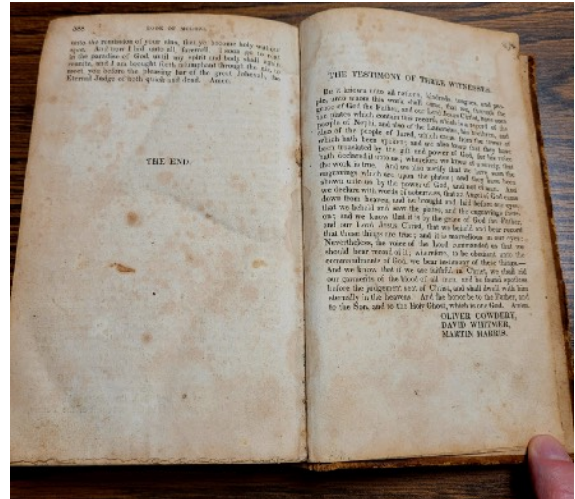

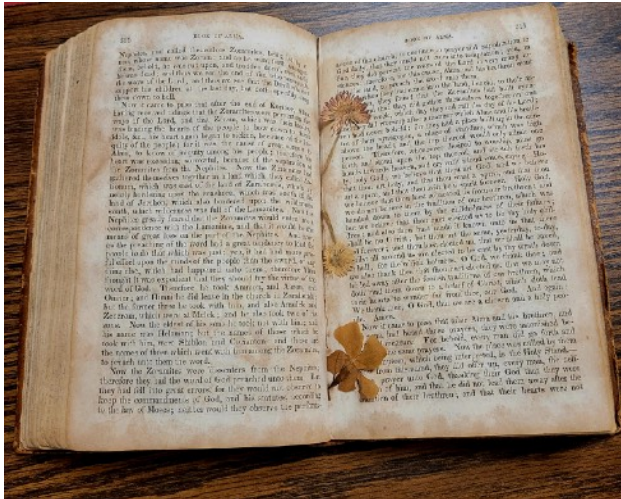

Notes: Dried/pressed flowers between pages 310/311. Pg 127 line 13 "peeple" Pg 310 line 26/27 "pow-ful", Pg 575 line 15 "elder or priest", Three Witnesses page line 10, proper "seen"

Additional pictures taken, including:

*E. Freeman
F. Partridge*

Book of Mormon Census

A0100

This Is An Original Copy
Of The Book Of Mormon
One of 5,000 Printed In 1830
In Palmyra, New York
By The E. B. Grandin Company.
This Copy Was Donated
To The Seattle Stake President,
Layton B. Jones, In 1960
By A Non-member Woman
Who Found It Among Her
Deceased Mother's Possessions,
President F. Arthur Kay,
Who Succeeded President Jones
As The Seattle Stake President
At The Seattle Temple, The First President

This Is An Original Copy
Of The Book Of Mormon,
One of 5,000 Printed In 1830
In Palmyra, New York
By The E. B. Grandin Company.
This Copy Was Donated
To The Seattle Stake President,
Layton B. Jones, In 1960
By A Non-member Woman
Who Found It Among Her
Deceased Mother's Possessions,
President F. Arthur Kay,
Who Succeeded President Jones
As The Seattle Stake President
And Later Became The First President
Of The Seattle Temple,
Brought The Book To The Temple
In 1980.