H0015, 1874 Book of Mormon

December 9, 2023

Joseph Smith III House & Visitor Center, Lamoni IA

1874 Book of Mormon, Joseph Smith III House

Provenance:

Accompanying documentation lists it donated by Dr. Paul Edwards, son of F. Henry Edwards of the First Presidency of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Other documentation dated Sept 1, 1978, lists given to Liberty Hall by Vera Blair, believed to have belonged to James Baker.

Features and Notes:

Spine: Separated into five panel sections, with for spine ribs. Spine ribs worn down to raw leather, signs of tape on upper section of spine.

Spine Lettering and Label: Missing or not visible

Binding: spine/cover hinges intact, but showing raw leather

Title Page: Present and in tact, listing Plano, ILL, RLDS publication.

Text: Full text, no reportable details

Inscription: None recorded

Notes: The Plano ILL publication was the first impression print run and later impressions listed Lamoni Iowa. This reflects an 1874 printing as the Lamoni, Iowa printings also list 1874, but were used/printed through the 1890's.
